

We welcome you August 1, 2010 to worship with us at the Fremont Berean Bible Church. We realize that you may have specific questions and needs. Please let us know how we can be of help to you by calling the church (721-2175) or Pastor Steve at 317-2170 or 727-7951(home).

Prepare our hearts and people

Prepare your hearts beginning on Saturday evening. Read a passage of Scripture, pray for yourself, for the church family, for friends and neighbors. Get a good night sleep. Come with thanks on your lips.

Prayer fellowship 9:00 – 9:45 AM

Jesus said, "My House shall be called a House of Prayer." Join with us in seeking the face of God, of calling upon His holy Name, of knowing His presence.

WORSHIP 10:00 A.M

The goal of worship is that together we experience the presence of God, together we celebrate His faithfulness, together we learn to walk with Him and we leave to proclaim the greatness of His grace.

Expressing our Worship in Song

MY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER—

"Most of my struggles in the Christian life circle around the same two themes: why God doesn't act the way we want God to, and why I don't act the way God wants me to.

Prayer is the precise point where those themes converge." Phillip Yancey

Communion—a time of remembering the Lord Jesus' death for us

Offering

Morning Message: Finding Joy: Paul is writing a letter to encourage the believers. God is at work in them and will continue to work—that is a cause of joy. God uses our circumstances to reach people for Jesus—that is a cause of joy. God knits us together in a Body, a team to work together—that is a cause of joy. We serve One (the Lord Jesus) who loves us so much He died for us—that is a cause of joy. We are called to become like Jesus/we have a destiny—that is a cause of joy. Now Paul shares that ministry involves the personal touch.

Time of Dedication—we want to recognize and thank those that serve

Closing Song—

VERSES TO MEMORIZE AND MEDITATE UPON IN AUGUST

Verse for the Year: Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name Rev. 3:8

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 2 Chron. 7:14

For Women—remember that Bible studies are an opportunity to invite and bring and introduce others to the church/family. Put Women of Faith on your calendar. These are also opportunities to reach people that would not come to church.

Goals for this summer:

1. Establish an effective prayer team on Sunday mornings and through-out the week
--by inviting and involving people in prayer at 9 AM
--by having every take a personal responsibility for one another which will impact our prayers.
2. Lay a strong foundation for Men's Ministries moving into fall
--by having monthly fellowships
--by involving men in responsibilities in the church
--by training men to take their active role in the life of the church
3. Recruit, train and organize workers for both Nursery and Children's Church—with Betty Huston moving this summer we need to redo.
The reason that this is so vital is because if we do not minister to young families (parents when the children are young), then we lose the most fruitful time to impact the next generation for Jesus.
4. Get everyone to take one of the Computer Based Training courses.

To begin to accomplish these goals we are asking your to sign up today to help in the nursery/Children's Church (Shelley Donnelly has indicated a willingness to provide leadership/organization). There will be a dedication of Children's Church and Nursery Workers August 1.

Prayer and Praise:

1. Mike Baker family (Mike was willed in an auto accident this week. Nick, a son, is in critical condition).
2. Josh Klinzing—health needs
3. Adam Kavan has need of full time job
4. Anita Guyette is dealing with a lot of family related issues—grace

Praise: the debt for the roof has been reduced from over $36000 to $18,876.

Welcome to the Fremont Berean Bible Church

*A World to reach for Jesus
Begin with your neighbor but don't end there.*

For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Col. 1
